

Neustar and NeoMedia Speed Up Widespread Implementation of Mobile 2D Barcodes

Oct 6, 2009

Neustar announces a landmark agreement with NeoMedia Technologies Inc. to have Neustar act as the exclusive patent licensing agent in the U.S. for NeoMedia's intellectual property for two-dimensional (2D) barcodes. The agreement creates a "one stop shop" for consumer brands to simply and affordably use barcodes to deliver exciting new applications, services and compelling content to mobile consumers.
