

Neustar Implements DNS Security Extensions in the .US Registry

Dec 15, 2009

Neustar, Inc. (NYSE: NSR) announced today that it has implemented Domain Name Security Extensions (DNSSEC) in the .US country-code top level domain registry. The technology uses public key cryptography and digital signatures to protect the Domain Name System (DNS) from attacks that hijack and redirect domain name requests.