
Neustar's Rodney Joffe to Address Government Cybersecurity Intelligence at 2014 RSA Conference

Feb 11, 2014

STERLING, VA., – Neustar, Inc. (NYSE: NSR), a trusted, neutral provider of real-time information and analytics, today announced that Rodney Joffe, its senior vice president, senior technologist and fellow, will join government and private sector security experts on a panel entitled “The Relevance of Government Cybersecurity Intelligence” at the 2014 RSA Conference on Tuesday, February 25, 2014 at 2:40 p.m.

WHAT: With the growing risk of cyber-attacks looming, companies are developing cybersecurity intelligence faster than ever, rendering classified government cybersecurity information increasingly irrelevant. Joffe and panelists will debate whether this organic intelligence is more valuable than traditional government cybersecurity intelligence.

WHEN: Tuesday, February 25, 2014 at 2:40 p.m.

WHERE: RSA Conference 2014, Moscone Center, West Building, Room 3022, 747 Howard Street, San Francisco, CA 94103

WHO: Rodney Joffe, senior vice president, senior technologist and fellow at Neustar
